

An Industrial Visit to MARS Edpal Instrument Private limited, Ambala on 11 Sept 2019

The Department of Electronics and Communication is going to organize an industrial visit to Mars Edpal Instruments Private limited, Ambala on 11 Sept. 2019 for 3rd semester students of AB section. Mars EdPal Instruments Pvt. Ltd. is an Indian company that provides reliable quality and competitively priced electronic, electrical and scientific instruments. Its main product range comprises of highly user friendly training systems, laboratory standards, testing the measuring instruments for institutions, industry and research. The primary objective of this visit is to make students familiar with the real application of industry machinery, the various components are used to manufacturing various experiment kits for college laboratory like ADC, DAC, CRO, Multimeter etc.

An Industrial Visit to Centre for Development of Advanced Computing (C-DAC), Mohali on 18 June, 2019

The department of Electronics and Communication is going to organize an industrial visit to CDAC Mohali on 18th June 2019 for the 3rd semester students of AB and CD section. Centre for Development of Advanced Computing (C-DAC), Mohali is a Scientific Society of the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, Government of India. It was set up in May 1989 as Centre for Electronics Design & Technology of India (CEDTI), Mohali. In December 2002, CEDTI Mohali merged with C-DAC with a primary mandate to promote high end R&D. C-DAC, Mohali operates from its own impressive building having a covered area of approximately 4300 sq. mts. The centre is located in the ELTOP (Electronics Town of Punjab) Complex amidst a large number of industries, manufacturing electronic products relating to computers, peripherals, communication equipment and components, offering a great professional challenge to the faculty and students of the Centre.