Chairman Message - Welcome on board

On behalf of all the other employees at Chandigarh Engineering College (CEC), Landran Campus, Mohali, I want to welcome you as a member of our team.

Building Careers, Transforming Lives” is our motto and it best describes our aim at Chandigarh Engineering College, Landran. CEC has over the years perfected the art of aiming for the highest and embracing the excellent.

Constantly ranked as one of the top most institutions in Northern region, we have emerged as the preferred choice for aspiring employees to make their career with us. Chandigarh Engineering College always remains in constant process of building upon our common intellectual wealth to leverage success in academics, quality placements, research and development.

It is noteworthy that we have established strong bondage in industry and developed many corporate affiliates. We have a strong industry institute interface and are accredited/ validated by some of the most renowned companies like Oracle, TCS, Infosys, L&T, Verizon and Mahindra etc. Such cordial relationships with top industry names are going to stand us in greater stead.

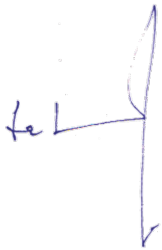

Our objectives are well-laid out. We are one of the top multi-disciplinary institutes in all facets; academics, placements, sports, and research and development.

In order to execute on this opportunity, our greatest asset clearly has to be our employees. We strive to employ the best-qualified people, give you the resources required to be successful, and encourage you to reach your greatest potential and goals. Our intention is to create an environment where respect for the individual is an integral part of our everyday life at work. We insist that communication channels remain open and ideas are shared. We also expect to work extremely hard, but we will also take the time to celebrate our results.

To establish quality guidelines, we must have a starting point and standard criteria. This handbook presents our employment guidelines, benefits, and procedures in an easy-to-understand format. I believe it will answer many of the questions that you may have and provide you with information that will help you throughout your employment. Should you have questions, please feel free to ask your Director/Principal/HOD or Human Resources Department (HR).

If we work together, I strongly believe that we will succeed in our mission. Doing so will be a tremendously rewarding experience for all who participate in making it happening.

I welcome you to be part of this big family and wish you success and wonderful experience at CEC.

Mr. Satnam Singh Sandhu
Chairman
Shri Guru Ram Dass Educational Society

President Message

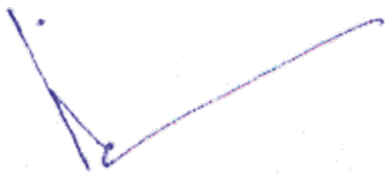

Chandigarh Engineering College, Landran has developed a world class infrastructure over the years. CEC is committed to upgrade and sustain the academic delivery system and institute's infrastructure in tune with future requirements.

Professional education is a dynamic and emerging field. Developing curiosity, to be in state of constant learning and innovation, to gain refreshing insights are a must for a professional. With this motive in the foreground, CEC regularly conducts lots of national and international level conferences, seminars, symposiums, and other events in several fields of technical professional education.

The institution has become a hub of research and development activity. We have a wide range of well-equipped workshops and laboratories that help students and faculty explore their field of study. Faculty members from our institute regularly present papers and participate in seminars and conferences all over the world.

Like students, employees are our biggest asset. To achieve vision & mission of the college, both teaching and non-teaching employees are integral part of the college and without their contribution we can't meet the goals of this institute.

I welcome you on board to be part of this institute and wish you a successful career with us.

Mr. Rashpal Singh Dhaliwal
President
Shri Guru Ram Dass Educational Society

I. INTRODUCTION

This HR Manual provides information about our guidelines and operating procedures. We believe it is a good way to let you know what you can expect from Chandigarh Engineering College (hereafter referred to as CEC or the College), and what we will expect from you. This handbook provides necessary information concerning your employment at CEC.

We urge you to consult the HR Manual whenever you have a question regarding employment or College policies. If the answer is not there, feel free to ask your immediate senior or Human Resources. Please be aware that it is the responsibility of each employee to read and understand this document and to comply with all provisions in it.

The College reserves the right to revise, modify, delete or add to any and all policies, procedures, work rules or benefits, stated in this manual. Any changes to this manual will be communicated to all employees. No oral statements or representations can in any way change or alter provisions of this manual.

Nothing said or done by any employee or stated in this manual or any other policies should be considered or construed as a contract (express or implied) or guarantee of employment or compensation, or guarantee of employment in a particular position with the College. Nothing in this manual, including benefit plan descriptions, creates or is intended to create a promise or representation of continued employment for any employee, for any particular period of time.

The contents of this manual, including any policy, rule, or regulation contained herein, apply to all employees of CEC when they are on College premises, or any other time within the scope of employment.

Please consult your senior if you have any questions.

With Best Wishes,

Human Resource

II. EMPLOYMENT STATUS

Definitions of Employment

The following information is used to describe the classification of employees and to provide a guide for determining their employment status.

Regular Employees

Regular employees are those who are hired to work on a regular schedule. Regular employees may be classified as full-time.

Regular employees are those who are regularly scheduled to work as follows:

Teaching: 7:35 hours per day inclusive of ½ an hour for lunch for five days a week.

Non – Teaching: 7:35 hours per day inclusive of ½ an hour for lunch with two Saturdays off in a month.

Regular employees are eligible for emoluments and college benefits as per Appointment letter.

Equal Opportunity Policy

One of the major objectives of CEC is to maintain a reputation for high standards of education practices, as well as to comply with applicable laws. Consistent with this, CEC maintains a policy of non-discrimination with employees and applicants for employment. All aspects of employment within the college are governed on the basis of merit, competence, and qualifications and are not influenced in any manner by religious creed, sex, age, marital status, protected disability as defined by law, sexual orientation, or any other basis protected by law.

Decisions made with respect to recruiting, hiring, and promotions are made on the basis of individual qualifications, competencies and performance related to the requirements of the position. Likewise, the administration of other personnel matters such as compensation, benefits, transfers, reduction-in-force, training, education and social/recreational programs are free from any discriminatory practices. Additionally, it is the policy of the CEC to provide a work environment that is free of harassment of a sexual or other discriminatory nature prohibited by law.

If you believe that you have been subjected to any form of discrimination or harassment, you should immediately see your Superior, Human Resources, or any other senior official with whom you feel comfortable discussing the matter. All reports of potential harassment will be taken seriously and will be investigated.

Employment in the CEC

An employee will be issued standard “Appointment Letter” in duplicate containing conditions of employment upon joining the college and confirming employment in the organization.

Personnel Records

CEC strives to balance employees’ rights to privacy with the College’s need to collect and use certain information. Personnel file contains information that is needed by the College to conduct its operations and/or is required by law. Personnel files are the property of CEC, and access to the information is restricted to only those individuals who have a legitimate reason to review information in the file.

CEC relies upon the accuracy of information contained in employment applications. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information may result in CEC’s exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment, or if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

All requests for references regarding present and former employees must be directed to Human Resources. No other employee is authorized to write a letter of reference, provide a reference by telephone, or otherwise respond to a reference request without the approval of the Chairman/President or HR.

The College may verify dates of employment, job title along with other employment details from previous employers, and will verify employment and/or salary information.

Employment of Relatives

CEC does not have a general prohibition against hiring relatives of employees, nor does it have a general prohibition against employing married couples. However, a few restrictions may apply to help prevent potential conflicts of interest.

While applications for employment from close family relatives of employees are considered when personnel vacancies occur, close family members such as parents, children, spouses, or in-laws may not be hired into positions where they directly or indirectly supervise or are supervised by another close family member. Any exceptions must have the approval of the Chairman/President. Further, the College reserves the right to not place relatives of employees in positions where there may be a conflict of interest (e.g. where employees work with, or have access to sensitive information regarding other close family relatives), or where they could transfer confidential information or compromise financial controls.

Open Door Policy

CEC gives employees the opportunity to discuss College decisions or actions which affect them. Many employee concerns are caused by misunderstandings and are best resolved by simply communicating with your seniors (HOD). If you still are not satisfied or comfortable after talking to your senior (HOD), or if the issue involves your immediate senior, you should see the next level of authority or Human Resources. You will not be victimized or otherwise penalized for raising in good faith a work-related concern, or for taking the appropriate steps to pursue the concern.

III. TIMEKEEPING AND PAYROLL PRACTICES

Paydays

CEC's employees are paid monthly on or before the 7th of the month. If the pay date falls on a Sunday or public holiday, the payday will be the preceding day. All employees are required to maintain SB account for which HR will assist you to open the account.

The employees' salaries are credited directly in their salaried bank account on or before 7th of the month as per details given above.

Change in Personal Status

Please inform Human Resources if there are any changes to the following: personal status; name and/or home address; marital status; dependent's birth or death; person to be notified in case of emergency or a change of that individual's phone number.

Work Hours/Schedule

Our normal general College hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 4:35 p.m., with half an hour for lunch. The College operates on a five-day week, Monday through Friday in case of teaching staff and six-day week with two Saturdays off in a month in case of non-teaching staff.

Time Keeping Procedures

All employees are required to mark time in and time out thru Biometric Attendance machine while entering the College premises. It is the duty of the employee to sign in and sign out. It is essential that the attendance record be completed accurately for salary preparation purposes. The complete attendance record must be approved by the HOD, and submitted to HR for salary making by 25th of every month

Mistakes on attendance records may be corrected by drawing a single line through the mistake and then writing in the correction. HOD & HR must initial and approve all corrections or changes to the attendance records.

This should be done as soon as possible and before it is submitted.

Falsification or intentional tampering with your own or another employee's attendance record will result in disciplinary action.

IV. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AND SERVICES

CEC is concerned in well being of you and your family. Therefore, we offer an extremely competitive package of employee benefit programs to regular employees. Complete and official details of these plans are available with the Human Resources Department. The information below is intended to give you a brief summary and a general understanding of these benefits.

Holidays

CEC provides paid time off to regular employees in recognition of certain holidays. A tentative gazette holiday schedule will be distributed by the beginning of each year which would be as per IKGPTU calendar.

The following is an example list of holidays that may be typically observed by CEC.

Republic day	Dusshera
Holi	Diwali
Independence Day	Guru Nanak Devji's Birthday
EID	Gandhi Jayanti

Leaves of Absence

As explained in the following sections, leaves of absence may be granted to regular employees in instances, where unusual or unavoidable circumstances require absence and this is to be granted as per college policy.

Any employee requesting a leave of absence should have good faith intent to return to work. CEC will consider any employee on leave to have resigned if the employee: (1) fails to report for work on the first scheduled work day after the authorized leave has expired, unless an extension has been requested and approved; or (2) accepts other employment while on leave without the approval of CEC's management. CEC may also terminate the employment of any employee who falsifies any information in connection with requesting or obtaining a leave.

Job Responsibilities & KRA's

All the employees working in CEC, are supposed to have their job descriptions as well as KRAs (HOD and above) duly defined and approved by Director/Principal/Campus Director/HR. The same is to be forwarded to HR department for further necessary action at their end. The Job Description and KRAs are to be as per the formats attached. The performance review is to be done as per the KRAs in case of manager & above.

Performance Reviews

CEC's performance appraisal program is designed to provide a process by which the performance and behavior of employees are appraised for purposes such as development and counseling and the administration of any incentive pay programs that may apply to your position. It is intended to provide employees with information concerning their performance, job related conduct, and the development of future performance objectives.

The Performance Appraisal of all the employees will be done once in a year in the month of July as part of our annual Performance Appraisal System which is well defined.

Compensation Program

CEC's philosophy is "Pay for Performance." Please understand that pay increases have nothing to do with your length of service.

We intend to pay wages that are competitive within the region and particularly within our sector.

Our philosophy regarding pay increases is based on individual performance and contribution, while also taking into consideration the College's financial situation. Pay increases will typically be given as part of the Annual Performance Appraisal system. "Promotional increases" may be given once in the year, as deemed appropriate. CEC expects each employee to provide the highest level of performance possible.

Employee salary and the salary of others are personal and confidential and should not be discussed among fellow employees.

Training and Education Assistance

New technology and competition are rapidly changing, as are the skills needed for all of us to continue to grow. To ensure that CEC has a work force with the skills needed now and in the future requires a partnership between you and the College.

CEC encourages the ongoing education and professional growth of employees at all levels. Participation in seminars or workshops often offers a valuable learning experience.

V. RESPONSIBILITIES

Protecting CEC's Interests (Conflicts of Interests)

It is our policy to take every reasonable measure to protect our students, employees, property and business interests against loss and damage. All employees are responsible for implementing this policy in their area and are responsible for complying with the College rules and procedures in order to further the CEC's image & interests.

The objective of the College Security Program is to provide an effective system of safeguards to protect the College property and facilities, its students, employees, and its interests. The goal of protection is to create friendly and conducive environment and enhance the work environment by reducing loss and damage.

While it is not possible to describe all the circumstances which might develop, the following are set forth for your guidance:

- Employees may not engage in any activity that is in any way hostile or adverse to CEC's image or interests.
- Employees may not accept a retainer, finder's fee, commission, consulting fee, free travel or activities, gifts (other than inexpensive advertising novelties), or any other remuneration from customers, potential customers, vendors, potential vendors, or other business associates without disclosure to and approval by management of CEC.
- Employees may not provide gifts (other than inexpensive advertising novelties), payments, or other favors to customers, potential customers, suppliers, potential suppliers, or other business associates of CEC without prior approval from management of CEC.
- Under no circumstances the College property of any kind to be taken off the premises unless permission has been obtained from the employee's seniors or Human Resource department. This includes computers, disks, files, College records, tools, equipment, paper, envelopes, printers, schedules, etc.
- Employees are not allowed to post any written materials (e.g. messages, bulletins, flyers, or posters) without the approval of their manager or Human Resources. Advertising, humorous, political, satirical, or other materials which could compromise the CEC's interests in any way are not allowed for distribution.
- You must not be running or administering your own business while working for CEC.

- Employees are not allowed to use College computers or printers to create or duplicate any materials that are not of an approved type necessary for CEC business. Exceptions to this rule must be granted in writing by Human Resources.
- Employees are not allowed to use the College courier, stamps, or shipping materials for shipping or mailing any materials, except those of an approved type necessary for CEC business.
- Employees should limit personal use of College time to a minimum (e.g. incoming and outgoing personal calls, personal mails received).
- All visitors must check in at the security gate of the college.
- Employees that misrepresent themselves as an agent of the College may be subject to legal and/or disciplinary action, which could include termination.

Any questions regarding a possible conflict of interest should be discussed with the employee's immediate supervisor, or Human Resources. Failure to disclose or discuss information related to any of the above may result in disciplinary action, which could include termination.

Off-Duty Conduct

While CEC does not seek to interfere with the off-duty and personal conduct of its employees, certain types of off-duty conduct may interfere with the College image & interests. For this reason, employees should be aware of and adhere to the following policy.

Employees are expected to conduct their personal affairs in a manner that does not adversely affect the CEC's or their own integrity, reputation or credibility. Illegal or immoral off-duty conduct on the part of an employee that adversely affects the CEC's legitimate interests, or the employee's ability to perform his or her job, will not be tolerated.

Searches

To prevent theft, conflicts of interest, and the possession of prohibited materials such as firearms and drugs, CEC has the following security and search policy. Desks, storage areas, work areas, lockers, file cabinets, computer systems, office telephones, modems, facsimile machines, duplicating machines and CEC vehicles remain the sole property of CEC and must be maintained in accordance with CEC standards. All such areas and items must be kept clean and are to be used only for work purposes, except as provided in this policy.

CEC reserves the right, at all times, and without prior notice, to inspect and search any and all CEC property. This includes various forms of electronic communication, including but not limited to all computers (including desk tops and laptops), e-mail, telephones (including cellular and cordless phones), voicemail, fax machines, all on line services paid for by the College Internet, World Wide Web, and software and hardware systems. Such inspections may be conducted during or after business hours, in the presence or absence of the employee, and without notice.

CEC computer systems, phone systems and other technical resources, including fax machines, or E-mail systems, are provided for use in the pursuit of CEC business and are to be reviewed, monitored and used only in that pursuit, except as provided in this policy. If, during the course of your employment, you perform or transmit any other work on CEC computer systems or other technical resources, your work may be subject to investigation, search and review in accordance with this policy. In addition, any electronically stored communications that you either send to or receive from others may be retrieved and reviewed where as such an investigation serves the legitimate business interests and obligations of CEC.

CEC employees may be permitted to use College equipment for occasional non- CEC purposes with written permission from an Officer. However, employees do not have a right to privacy in regard to any information or file maintained in or on CEC property, a customer's property or transmitted or stored through CEC computer systems, E-mail or other technical resources.

For purposes of inspecting, investigating or searching an employee's computerized files or transmissions, or E-mail, CEC may override any applicable passwords or codes in accordance with the best interests of CEC, its employees, its customers or visitors. All bills and other documentation related to the use of CEC equipment or property may be reviewed and used for purposes that CEC considers appropriate.

Employees may only access files or programs, whether computerized or not, that they have permission to enter. Unauthorized review, duplication, dissemination, removal, damage or alteration of files, passwords, computer systems or programs, or other property of CEC or improper use of information obtained by unauthorized means will result in disciplinary action, which could include termination.

If a CEC official has a reasonable suspicion that an employee has unauthorized possession of College property, client property, another employee's property, a prohibited substance or a dangerous item, CEC reserves the right to subject the employee to a search of his or her clothing and/or possessions, and it reserves the right to implement other measures to deter and detect any violation of this policy.

Employees who refuse to submit to a search will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include termination.

College Telephones / Mobile Phones

The College telephones are provided for official purposes in serving the interests of our clients and in the course of normal College operations. On a monthly basis, a record of all calls is reviewed by CEC's Accounting Department. On occasion, brief personal calls may be necessary, but we ask your cooperation in limiting them to emergencies or essential personal business and in keeping them as brief as possible. Any STD/ISD calls on personal account will be debited to respective account of employee.

All employees are required to switch off their MOBILE PHONES or put it on silent mode while in a meeting with Chairman/President or in regular inter departmental meetings.

VI. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Groups of people who are working together for any purpose require certain guidelines pertaining to their conduct and relationships. Accordingly, it is important that all employees be aware of their responsibilities to the College and to co-workers.

The following is only a partial list of unacceptable behaviors and conduct, as a complete list of all possible violations would be impossible to write. These violations (even if for a first time) of CEC standards may result in disciplinary action that may include verbal or written warnings, final warning, suspension, termination and/or criminal prosecution if required.

CEC reserves the exclusive right to determine levels of discipline at its sole discretion, with or without notice, at any time.

- Failure to observe department working hours (e.g. starting time, rest and lunch timings), including excessive absenteeism as defined exclusively by CEC.
- Conviction of, or arrest pending trial, for a crime that indicates that the employee may not be a good fit for the job or that threatens the safety or well-being of CEC, employees, customers, or property.
- Fighting, assault, disorderly conduct, or behavior that violates common decency, including using abusive or obscene language or gestures.
- Interference with, insubordination, or failure to carry out any reasonable direction of supervision.
- Leaving the workplace without permission during scheduled work hours for reasons other than assigned duties.
- Possessing weapons or explosives on CEC property or while conducting CEC business or using CEC vehicles.
- Stealing, theft or willfully damaging or defacing the property of the College, clients, or others.

- Removing College property without authorization.
- Falsifying College information or records of any kind.
- Any conduct that may pose an actual or potential conflict of interest to CEC.

In addition, an employee's failure or inability to perform assigned duties for reasons such as lack of necessary experience, education, skill, integrity, diligence, or other job related factors may result in termination.

Workplace Violence

CEC recognizes that workplace violence is a growing concern. CEC is committed to providing a safe, violence-free workplace and strictly prohibits employees, students, consultants, customers, visitors, or anyone else on College premises, or engaging in a College-related activity, from behaving in a violent or threatening manner. As part of this policy, CEC seeks to prevent workplace violence before it begins and reserves the right to deal with behavior that suggests a propensity towards violence, even prior to any violent behavior occurring. The College believes that prevention of workplace violence begins with recognition and awareness of potential early warning signs. Workplace violence includes:

1. Threats of any kind;
2. Threatening physically, or violent behavior, such as intimidation of, or attempts to instill fear in others;
3. Other behavior that suggests a propensity toward violence, which can include belligerent speech, excessive arguing or swearing, sabotage, or threats of sabotage of College property or a demonstrated pattern of refusal to follow College policies and procedures;
4. Defacing College property or causing physical damage to the facilities;
5. Bringing weapons or firearms of any kind on College premises, or while conducting College business.

All such behavior is strictly prohibited and will not be tolerated. CEC may, at its sole discretion, immediately institute discipline, including immediate termination, against any employee who, in any way, violates this policy.

If you observe or become aware of any actions or behaviors by an employee, customer, consultant, visitor, or anyone else as listed herein, you must notify the immediate manager or Human Resources immediately.

All reports of workplace violence will be taken seriously and will be investigated. In appropriate circumstances, the College will inform the reporting individual of the results of the investigation.

The College reserves the right to inspect all College property, including but not limited to desks, computers, vehicles and other property to ensure compliance with its rules and regulations, without notice to the employee, and with or without the employee present.

If the College determines that workplace violence has occurred, the College will take appropriate corrective action. The appropriate discipline will depend on the particular facts, but may include written or oral warnings, probation, and reassignment of responsibilities, suspension or termination. If the violent behavior is that of a non-employee, the College will take appropriate corrective action in an attempt to ensure that such behavior is not repeated. Violation of the College's policy on violence may also result in criminal as well as civil liability on the part of the employee who violated this policy.

Corrective Action Process

Employees should expect their manager/superior/HOD to work with them to correct work performance or behavior problems. In some cases, disciplinary action may be necessary. Disciplinary action includes, but is not limited to, oral warnings, written warnings, probation, suspension and discharge. The College may consider other forms of discipline, depending on the facts and circumstances of any particular incident. The nature of the discipline imposed will depend upon the seriousness of the problem and your record of prior performance and/or behavior problems.

The College has the right to determine what disciplinary action is appropriate based on the facts of each case. Not all available forms of discipline are appropriate to each disciplinary situation and it is not required that the College treat each form of discipline as a chronological step in a series. For example, some situations may call for immediate discharge, even where there has been no prior discipline problem

Alcohol and Substance Abuse

The use of illegal drugs and alcohol can adversely affect job performance and endanger the welfare and safety of employees, students and members of the public. CEC strictly prohibits the use of alcohol or possession of illegal drugs on its premises. Any employee possessing or using alcohol or illegal drugs, reporting to work or working under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs is subject to disciplinary action, which could include termination and criminal prosecution. If a CEC official has a reasonable suspicion that an employee has possession of, or is under the influence of, a prohibited or dangerous substance, CEC reserves the right to subject the employee to a search of his or her clothing and/or possessions and also reserves the right to implement other measures to deter and detect any violation of this policy.

An employee will be required to submit to a drug and alcohol test when there is reasonable suspicion that the employee may be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs. An employee may also be required to take a post-accident drug test where the College has reasonable suspicion that the employee involved in the accident was under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol, or if the accident was serious in nature.

Sexual Harassment

CEC is an equal opportunity employer organization and is committed to creating a healthy working environment that enables employees to work without fear of prejudice, gender bias and sexual harassment. The CEC also believes that all employees of the College have the right to be treated with dignity. Sexual harassment at the work place or other than work place if involving employees is a grave offence and is, therefore, punishable as per law. Currently, sexual harassment complaints (if any) are being handled on case to case basis by appointing redress committees thru internal enquiries.

Smoking and Eating In the Workplace

For reasons of health, safety, public relations and other concerns, smoking is prohibited anywhere inside CEC's facilities at all times. Food and drink are not permitted in certain designated areas, such as plant, laboratories. All employees are expected to cooperate accordingly.

All employees are responsible for maintaining cleanliness and neatness of their respective workplace.

Attendance Standards

Punctuality and regular attendance are essential to the proper operation of our business. As an employee, regular attendance and punctuality are expected, and are conditions of employment. We work as a team, and that requires each person to be in the right place at the right time.

We realize that you may have to miss work or be late on occasion because of unexpected circumstances. However, for the business to run smoothly and efficiently, these times are expected to be infrequent.

If you are going to be absent or know you are going to be late, make sure to call and notify your supervisor no later than half an hour after your normal start time. This call is a must, as well as a courtesy to your supervisor and fellow workers.

You are required to call your supervisor every day you are going to be absent. You are also expected to inform the College of the anticipated duration of any absence.

The College reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to require you to produce a medical doctor's certificate for an absence or tardiness. If you fail to meet this requirement and/or falsify or misrepresent any information concerning your attendance, you may receive disciplinary action, which could include termination.

You will be considered to have voluntarily terminated your employment with the College if you are absent for five (5) or more consecutive days without reporting to the College.

Excessive absenteeism or tardiness, as defined exclusively by the College, may result in disciplinary action, which could include termination. Each situation of excessive absenteeism or tardiness is treated on a case-by-case basis. CEC reserves the exclusive right to determine the level of discipline applied in regard to attendance, including punctuality, at its sole discretion.

Personal Appearance

Since each employee is a representative of CEC, our personal appearance is meant to be a reflection of our professionalism and the customers that we serve. A few guidelines have been established to insure this philosophy is met:

- All employees are expected to always wear the appropriate safety clothing or personal protection devices for the job(s) they perform. Nothing should be worn which violates or compromises any of our safety rules/regulations.
- Basic appearance should always be neat, clean and of a professional nature. You should not wear anything that has visible holes or tears, and clothing and grooming should not be of an extreme style.
- When contacting customers, suppliers, or business partners, employees are always expected to dress professionally.

Operating Vehicles

CEC requires all employees who may drive a vehicle (including their own vehicles), during the course of their employment, to possess a valid driver's license and carry proof of insurance.

Traffic and parking violations and the payment of fines assessed for those violations are the sole personal responsibility of any driver operating a CEC vehicle or other vehicle on CEC work.

Certain employees who drive a considerable amount during the scope of business may be provided with a College vehicle. CEC does reimburse employees at standard College-designated rates for mileage driven, tolls, and reasonable parking fees incurred in the performance of College duties if they should have to use their own vehicle or college vehicle.

VII. SAFETY STANDARDS

Regardless of where you work at CEC, there is the possibility that an accident can happen & an accident could result in personal injury. This is why the College has established a safety, health and environment policy that is really nothing more than a planned series of common sense controls and a few safety practices which need to be established for the protection of every employee.

CEC maintains a safe work place for its employees consistent with safety codes. However, this does not guarantee freedom from injury. The most important preventive measure is for each employee to perform his or her job in the safest possible manner.

No employee is expected to take chances or endanger others. If fellow workers become careless, bring it to the appropriate person's attention or your manager's attention before they hurt themselves or endanger others.
